PROCEDURAL HISTORY

A. On November 17, 1997, the complainant, the Division of Enforcement in the Department of Regulation and Licensing, filed a petition for an administrative injunction. A hearing on the petition was scheduled for December 8, 1997. On November 17, 1997, a copy of the petition and a notice of hearing were served on the respondent by first-class mail to the respondent's last known address.

B. The hearing was held as scheduled. The respondent appeared in person. The department was represented by Attorney Steven Gloe of the Department's Division of Enforcement. The hearing was recorded. The testimony and exhibits entered into evidence at the hearing form the basis for this Proposed Decision.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The respondent, Corey L. Alston, does not hold a license to practice as a barber or cosmetologist in the State of Wisconsin.

3. On November 7, 1997, Mr. Alston was observed providing barbering and/or cosmetology services at Fade Masters in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

I. Under section 440.21, Stats., and chapter RL 3, Wis. Admin. Code, the Department of Regulation and Licensing is the legal authority responsible for enforcing laws requiring credentials issued under chapters 440 to 459, Stats. The department has jurisdiction over the subject-matter of a petition alleging that a person engaged in a practice without a credential required under chapters 440 through 459.

II. The respondent, Corey L. Alston, was served by mail at his last-known address in Wisconsin under section RL 3.13, Wis. Admin Code. The Department of Regulation and Licensing has personal jurisdiction over the respondent under section 801.04(2), Stats.

III. The respondent, Corey L. Alston, has engaged in the practice of barbering or cosmetology and used the title of "barber", "cosmetologist", "barber cosmetologist", or "hairstylist" without a barber or cosmetologist license or a manager license, in violation of section 454.04(2) of the Wisconsin Statutes. A special order enjoining Corey L. Alston from continuing to practice barbering and cosmetology and to hold himself out as a barber or cosmetologist is therefore appropriate under section 440.21(2), Stats.

OPINION

This case is an action for an administrative injunction against Corey L. Alston, under the authority of sec. 440.21, Stats., and ch. RL 3, Wis. Admin. Code. The petition in this matter alleged that Mr. Alston engaged in activities which are reserved by statute to those holding a valid barber or cosmetologist license or a manager license under sec. 454.04(2), Stats.

Mr. Alston appeared at the hearing and admitted the essential facts of the petition, which establish that he used the title of "barber", "cosmetologist", "barber cosmetologist", or "hairstylist" and engaged in the practice of barbering and cosmetology without the professional credential required by statute. An administrative injunction is authorized by section 440.21(2), Stats., and chapter RL 3, Wis. Admin. Code, and it is clearly appropriate here.

Any person who violates a special order issued under section 440.21(2), Stats., may be required to forfeit up to $10,000 for each offense, under section 440.21(4), Stats., and each day of continued violation constitutes a separate offense. It should be noted that the issuance of a special order in an administrative injunction does not preclude other remedies for the respondent's violations of statutes, such as a misdemeanor prosecution by the district attorney under section 457.17, Stats.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS OF APPEAL

TO: COREY L ALSTON

You have been issued a Final Decision and Order. For purposes of service the date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is 2/13/98. Your rights to request a rehearing and/or judicial review are summarized below and set forth fully in the statutes reprinted on the reverse side.

A. REHEARING.

Any person aggrieved by this order may file a written petition for rehearing within 20 days after service of this order, as provided in section 227.49 of the Wisconsin Statutes. The 20 day period commences on the day of personal service or the date of mailing of this decision. The date of mailing of this Final Decision is shown above.

A petition for rehearing should name as respondent and be filed with the party identified below.

A petition for rehearing shall specify in detail the grounds for relief sought and supporting authorities. Rehearing will be granted only on the basis of some material error of law, material error of fact, or new evidence sufficiently strong to reverse or modify the Order which could not have been previously discovered by due diligence. The agency may order a rehearing or enter an order disposing of the petition without a hearing. If the agency does not enter an order disposing of the petition within 30 days of the filing of the petition, the petition shall be deemed to have been denied at the end of the 30 day period.

A petition for rehearing is not a prerequisite for judicial review.

B. JUDICIAL REVIEW.

Any person aggrieved by this decision may petition for judicial review as specified in section 227.53, Wisconsin Statutes (copy on reverse side). The petition for judicial review must be filed in circuit court where the petitioner resides, except if the petitioner is a non-resident of the state, the proceedings shall be in the circuit court for Dane County. The petition should name as the respondent the Department, Board, Examining Board, or Affiliated Credentialing Board which issued the Final Decision and Order. A copy of the petition for judicial review must also be served upon the respondent at the address listed below.

A petition for judicial review must be served personally or by certified mail on the respondent and filed with the court within 30 days after service of the Final Decision and Order if there is no petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after service of the order finally disposing of a petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition by operation of law of any petition for rehearing. Courts have held that the right to judicial review of administrative agency decisions is dependent upon strict compliance with the requirements of sec. 227.53 (1) (a), Stats. This statute requires, among other things, that a petition for review be served upon the agency and be filed with the clerk of the circuit court within the applicable thirty day period.

The 30 day period for serving and filing a petition for judicial review commences on the day after personal service or mailing of the Final Decision and Order by the agency, or, if a petition for rehearing has been timely filed, the day after personal service or mailing of a final decision or disposition by the agency of the petition for rehearing, or the day after the final disposition by operation of the law of a petition for rehearing. The date of mailing of this Final Decision and Order is shown above.

The petition shall state the nature of the petitioner's interest, the facts showing that the petitioner is a person aggrieved by the decision, and the grounds specified in section 227.57, Wisconsin Statutes, upon which the petitioner contends that the decision should be reversed or modified. The petition shall be entitled in the name of the person serving it as Petitioner and the Respondent as described below.
